

Edgewood Center for Children and Families

When life's circumstances take parents away from a child, often times courageous relatives step in to fill the gap. Children who are in foster care with relatives have better emotional, educational, and life outcomes than those raised in the care of strangers. Grandparents and relative caregivers offer kinship children a lifetime of love and success.

Have you stepped up to take care of your grandchild or another relative's or friend's child?

Let the Kinship Support Network help you.

provides behavioral health services to children, youth, and emerging adults aged 0 to 25. Each year, we touch the lives of thousands of families living in San Francisco and San Mateo counties who have experienced severe trauma, abuse, or neglect. Founded in 1851, Edgewood is the oldest children's charity west of the Mississippi and offers programs ranging from prevention and early intervention to community based treatment, day and after school programs, residential treatment, and crisis stabilization.
